

Eliot Smith's Tiger Basketball Camp

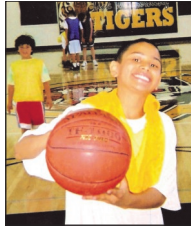

Registration Form

PHILOSOPHY

The Tiger Basketball Camp emphasizes fundamental skills, including dribbling, passing, shooting, rebounding and playing defense. Our coaching staff helps campers translate those skills into game situations. The program appeals to boys and girls who are new to basketball, as well as those who have had vast playing experience. Regardless of the level of play, our #1 priority is to make sure everyone has fun!

DAILY SCHEDULE (sample)

11:30am-12:15pm	Lunch (Please provide your own)
12:30-2:00pm	Games, Games, Games!

STAFF

Tiger Basketball Camp is directed by Eliot Smith, Athletic Director and Varsity Basketball Coach at Lick-Wilmerding High School. In 2008, Coach Smith led the L-W Varsity Boys' Basketball team to the finals of the 2008 California State Championship—a first in the school's rich, athletic history. Assisting Coach Smith will be student-athletes and coaches from L-W's basketball program. Eliot was selected as the 2005 North Coast Section C.I.F. Boys' Basketball Honor Coach from a pool of 171 California member schools for his outstanding coaching accomplishments, professional standards and contributions to the sport of High School Basketball.

For over 30 years, Coach Smith has been a mentor and teacher to hundreds of boys and girls interested in learning the fundamentals of basketball and the rewards of playing and working together in a team environment.

"Whenever I go to Tiger Camp, I feel like I always get something out of it. Your camp is still the only basketball camp that I will go to because I have a lot of fun and because you teach kids to be the best they can be."

- Ben K.,
